Middle School Summer School Terms & Conditions

Registration begins on Monday, February 3, at 3:30 p.m. Once enrolled, you are responsible for all the financial obligations incurred during the summer session as stated on the School’s website.

CONSENT AND RELEASE

I/We hereby give my/our full consent and permission for my/our child to participate in all recreational, athletic, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities offered by the School (collectively, the “Activities”) during Summer School. On behalf of myself/ourselves, including my/our child, and my/our representatives, and assigns, I/we hereby fully and forever waive, release, and discharge the School and all of its respective past, present, and future agents and assigns, from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, obligations, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including attorneys’ fees) of any kind or character whatsoever, arising out of, resulting from, or in any way relating to my/our child’s participation in any and all Activities, except for claims based on the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any authorized agent of the School. Further, I/we agree to indemnify and hold the School harmless for any liability, loss, or damage to others caused by my/our child’s enrollment in the School and attendance at, or participation in, its Summer School program.

I/We authorize the School to evaluate and provide treatment to my/our child as deemed advisable in the event of an injury or illness. In the event of a serious injury and if unable to contact me/us, this consent is to include any and all emergency procedures deemed necessary by the School Nurse, Counselor, or professional staff, or other School employee, including but not limited to the transport of my/our child to a local emergency facility. In the event of transport to an emergency facility, when the Parents/Guardians cannot be contacted, I/we grant permission for treatment by any physician or hospital to which my/our child was taken.

I/We agree to allow the School to use in whole or in part my/our child’s photograph, videos, writing excerpts, voice recordings, likeness, and name in any medium without compensation. Further, I/we hereby permit the school to publicize my/our child’s achievements in any medium. If you do not wish to have your child’s likeness included in camp materials, please contact the summer school director at nroden@buckley.org no later than May 15, 2020.

FORCE MAJEURE

The School’s duties and obligations shall be suspended immediately without notice for all periods during which the School is closed because of events beyond its control, including, but not limited to, any fire, act of God, war, governmental action, act of terrorism, epidemic, pandemic, or any other similar event. If such an event occurs, the School’s duties and obligations will be postponed until such time as the School, in its sole discretion, may safely reopen. The School will not be obligated to refund any fees or tuition in the event of such postponement.

INTEGRATION CLAUSE

This contains all of the terms and conditions agreed on by the parties. Any other agreements, promises, negotiations, or representations, either oral or written, relating to the subject matter, not expressly set forth in the terms and conditions, are of no force or effect. The terms and conditions cannot be amended, modified, or supplemented in any respect except by written agreement signed by all of the parties.

ADMINISTRATION

Neal Roden, Head of Middle School
(818) 783-1610 x444
nroden@buckley.org
TUITION AND FEES

Summer School Class: $300 for each one-week session

ENROLLMENTS AND CANCELLATIONS NOTE

The School reserves the right to close enrollment or to discontinue a course offering. If a course is discontinued, you will be notified seven days in advance of the class start date and a full refund will be provided. With the exception of the above, no refunds will be issued for the courses after the first day of the course commencing. Students may register for additional courses at any time but must pay the full cost of the class. Should you need to withdraw from a course, please notify Dale Bartels in the Business Office at dbartels@buckley.org

BEHAVIOR

Please refer to the Buckley Family Handbook for a complete description of behavioral expectations.

DRESS CODE

Students are expected to observe good taste in casual dress. Sneakers and t-shirts are allowed but for safety reasons, sandals and clogs are not permitted. Full details about summer dress code will be emailed before the class begins.

HOMEWORK

The summer school classes are not offered for academic credit. However, some homework may be assigned each day.

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all five classes of any session in which they enroll.

LIBRARY

The summer hours for the Robert Young Library are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m.

OVERBOOKING

In the event that you find you are unable to register for a Middle School class due to the class being full, you may choose to become part of a “wait list.” Please email your name, telephone number, and the class for which you want to be placed on the “wait list” to Neal Roden, Head of Middle School, at nroden@buckley.org. Should an opening occur, Mr. Roden will contact you in the order in which you signed up on the “wait list.” We regret any inconvenience this may cause. Thank you.
